

Welcome to Blackwell Grange which was purchased by George Allan from Thomas Hill in 1693. George added the south wing between 1717 and 1722 for the return of his eldest son George and his new wife Thomasine Prescott from their honeymoon.

George died in 1753 and Blackwell Grange passed into the ownership of their daughter Good Miss Ann Allan. Sir Henry Havelock inherited Blackwell in 1880 and applied for a Royal Licence to add 'Allan' to his own name.

In 1972 Blackwell Grange opened as an hotel and is now in the safe hands of Bruhenny Hotels. We hope you enjoy your visit to our historic home at Blackwell Grange.
